

Goddard Fall Festival Chili Cook off Regulations

1. Set up time will begin at 11:00 A.M.
2. Have a typed copy of the ingredients of your chili recipe posted at your table in full view of the tasters.
3. The City of Goddard, Goddard Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, or any other organization associated with this contest are not responsible for any damage etc. to competitor's equipment or any individuals while they are cooking or serving on the property used for this event. The City of Goddard, Goddard Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, or any other organization associated with this contest are not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items.
4. Goddard Chamber of Commerce will supply the following: table, electrical outlet (this does not include the extension cord needed to provide electricity to your appliances or warming devices), tasting cups, spoons, napkins, and plastic gloves to the competitors.
5. We recommend that each competitor make a minimum of 5 gallons of chili.
6. Please bring all items needed, such as: all recipe ingredients, ice chest, crock-pots, extension cords, accessories, tent, decorations, chairs, crackers, cheese, sour-cream, ladle, and food thermometer.
7. Please have a poster with the name of your group for display. Brochures etc. These items may be placed on your table as advertising.
8. Serving gloves must be worn while preparing and serving food. Your hair must be pulled back or in a hair net while serving food.
9. Each competitor's team must know and abide by the regulations set forth by the Sedgwick County Health Department. The City of Goddard, Goddard Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club, or any other organization associated with this contest is not responsible for competitors violations of regulations set forth by the Sedgwick County Health Department. Compliance with the regulations set forth by the Sedgwick County Health Department are the sole responsibility of the contestant.
10. All tables must be ready to serve chili by 12:00 P.M.
11. The chili contest will go until 2:00 P.M. and prize announcements will be made by 2:30P.M.